Task 1: Request for Additional Public Trash Bins

Excellent sample answer (written at around CLB 11–12, an estimate, not an official score)

Subject: Urgent Need for Additional Public Trash Bins

Dear City Council,

I am writing to address the critical shortage of trash bins in our community's public spaces, particularly in parks and along busy streets. This scarcity has led to rampant littering, tarnishing the area's appearance and creating environmental concerns. Residents and visitors alike are frustrated by the lack of disposal options, often resulting in overflowing bins or garbage strewn about. To resolve this, I recommend installing more bins in high-traffic areas and establishing a regular emptying schedule to maintain cleanliness recovered from <https://youtu.be/BcF8mb3A?si=3Q-Tl9pN4uU&t=4> cleanliness. I urge the council to act swiftly to implement these changes to enhance our community's cleanliness and appeal. Please confirm receipt and provide a timeline for action.

Best regards,

Task 2: Youth Recreation Programs

Excellent sample answer (written at around CLB 11–12, an estimate, not an official score)

I strongly endorse Option B, as art and music classes foster creativity and emotional development in teenagers, offering a broader impact than sports alone.

These programs provide a vital outlet for self-expression—think of a teen composing a melody or crafting a sculpture—which nurtures resilience and critical thinking skills transferable to academics and beyond. Sports leagues promote physical health and collaboration, yet their appeal is narrower, often sidelining those uninterested in athletics. In contrast, the arts embrace all, equipping youth with diverse talents that enrich personal growth and community culture. For example, a music class might inspire a future innovator.

Investing in Option B ensures a more inclusive, vibrant future for our teens and town alike.
