Task 1: Writing an Email

Time: 27 minutes · Length: 150–200 words

Sharing an Airport Lost and Found Experience

You recently lost an item at the airport and contacted the lost and found department. You want to share your experience, whether positive or negative.

Write an email to the airport customer service team. Your email should include:

- A description of the lost item and when you reported it.
- How the staff handled your case.
- Whether the item was found and returned.
- Any suggestions for improving the lost and found process.

Your answer: _____ words

Task 2: Responding to Survey Questions

Time: 26 minutes · Length: 150–200 words

City Public Event Funding Survey

Your city is planning its budget for public events and wants resident input after seeing debates over big festivals versus local gatherings. They've sent a survey to decide how to spend the funds, aiming to pick events that best fit the community's needs and joy. This is your chance to influence what happens in your city!

Which option do you prefer? Why?

- Option A: Invest in more large-scale concerts and festivals.
- Option B: Fund smaller community-based events and cultural programs.

Your answer: _____ words

Sample answers

One strong answer for each task. Use them for ideas, structure and vocabulary, not to memorise: examiners notice memorised answers.

Task 1: Sharing an Airport Lost and Found Experience

Excellent sample answer (written at around CLB 11–12, an estimate, not an official score)

Dear [Manager's Name],

I recently lost a personal item at your airport and was highly impressed by the efficiency of your lost and found department. Your team responded promptly, provided clear instructions, and successfully located my missing item within hours.

Their professionalism and dedication to assisting travelers deserve recognition. Thank you for maintaining such an excellent service.

Sincerely,

[Your Full Name]

Task 2: City Public Event Funding Survey

Excellent sample answer (written at around CLB 11–12, an estimate, not an official score)

I strongly advocate for Option B, as funding smaller community-based events and cultural programs fosters deeper social engagement and long-term benefits.

Large-scale festivals generate excitement, but they often cater to temporary entertainment rather than sustained community enrichment.

In contrast, local events such as art workshops, cultural performances, and educational programs create lasting opportunities for residents to connect, learn, and celebrate diversity.

Furthermore, community-driven events are more inclusive. They provide accessible and meaningful participation for all age groups, ensuring that public funds serve a wider demographic rather than being concentrated on a few high-profile occasions.

Investing in grassroots cultural initiatives strengthens the social fabric of our city and creates a more engaged and connected community.
